Cuddly tale ?

Kitty woke up early in the morning, hungry. She could hear her tummy rumbling. And, while she wanted to stay in bed, she decided was time to leave the confines of her beautiful bedroom.

Family mystery ?

One day, as Fona was wondering around an empty house, she noticed a baby girl in a crib crying. "Where are her parent?" she thought. Fona showed the baby to her husband Flame. They both looked for the baby's parents but no one claimed the baby. They decided to adopt her and named her Flora because she reminded them of a sweet little flower.
